MISSING ANNIE.

THE HOPES OF HER FRIENDS THAT SHE WAS

In the East Dashed to the Ground
S. D. Waterman, on the Bond
Question.

Missing Annie Parker.

The mother of missing Annie Parker, the dressmaker, has satisfied herself that her daughter did not go to Mrs. F. Wood when she went away. Wood has all along held that Annie would not go to his wife, and particularly to aid her in getting a divorce from him, as had been stated. Miss Parker's mother said yesterday: "Annie has not gone to Mrs. Wood. We have heard from there by wire. We telegraphed there, but not to Mrs. Wood, and we have learned from another source that Annie is not with Mrs. Wood and has not been there. We do not know where she is. We have had every asylum and hospital searched. We have made inquiry to see if she purchased a railroad ticket for any place, but have heard nothing whatever about her."

From some recent developments it seems that the young woman deliberated on the step she was taking in absenting herself. Wood said yesterday that Annie had agreed to meet him at her store at 1109 Jefferson street at 7:30 o'clock on the evening of January 22nd, the day of her disappearance. The appointment had been made so that Annie could tell him of her purpose to close out her business. She had tried to tell him of her plans at the afternoon meeting, but she spoke in whispers to him, and he objected to whispered conversation, but she insisted that she did not want to be overheard. Then Wood suggested the evening meeting, when they might talk openly of the business without disturbance. He suggested that the meeting be held the following night (Thursday) with suggestion Annie made answers: "Oh, that will be too late." Wood thinks that she was led to make the remark after having determined to leave her home.

Yes, One Berkeley.

EDITOR GAZETTE.—So much has already been said and written about the bonds that almost the entire ground has been covered. The voters of Berkeley will have an opportunity tomorrow of settling and settling forever the sectional feeling which has caused so much trouble in the past. Our citizens North, South, East and West should look to the interests of Berkeley, bearing this in mind, that whatever benefits any portion of a community directly, benefits the whole community directly.

If the building of a wharf will induce manufacturers to locate their factories here, then by all means let us provide the means for building the wharf; for with these factories will come families who will make their homes on this side of the bay, real estate all over town will advance in value, and an era of prosperity for the whole town will begin and continue.

The report of the committee from the West Berkeley Progressive Club to the Good Government Club, as to the amount of freight passing over the wharf now and the prospective increase should a new wharf be built, put the question for bonding for the wharf in an entirely new light. If the case were thoroughly understood by all it seems that there would be hardly any opposition. Cheaper coal for all, cheaper freights for our merchants and a self sustaining wharf would be among the benefits at the very outset.

As far as the school proposition is concerned, every section of the town will receive relief in additional accommodations for the pupils of the lower grades, and Berkeley, not East Berkeley, will have a High school sufficiently large to accommodate all from the entire town who wish to avail themselves of its advantages. Of course, the building should be located where it will accommodate the entire town the best. Surely some location near Berkeley station is the most convenient on account of the steam cars, the electric cars and the street car line to the West end, and also on account of the nearness to the University library, free access to which is generously granted by the University authorities to the pupils of the High school.

The including of $10,000 for a High School lot in the estimate for bonding will not in any way compel the purchase of such a lot. The town Board evidently included this sum in the estimate in order to provide for any question of location that might arise. If the bonds are voted the selection of the site for the High School building can be easily fixed.

The wharf, though necessarily located at the west, will benefit the entire town and the High School, though located at the east, will likewise benefit the whole town.

We hope and trust that our citizens will rally and as a unit vote and work for both propositions for the interests of Berkeley. With the increased school facilities and with proper encouragement to our manufacturing interests the population will more than double in the next five or six years and the assessment roll will increase at the same rate.

After periods of business depression there have always come periods of prosperity. There is no doubt that the county is at the dawn of better times. The fact that there has been a steady growth here all through this period of business depression indicates what will surely come at once, if we are true to the interest of the whole town in which we have made our homes and in which we ought to love.

Sharing your views regarding people who write and are ashamed to sign their names.—I beg to sign mine.
S. D. WATERMAN.

Wore The Army Uniform.

A swindler has been operating in Oakland in the guise of a solicitor for subscriptions to a fund for the construction of new barracks for the Salvation Army. He wore a uniform of the organization and was successful in inducing N. Leitch, an undertaker, and John Bennett, an East Oakland grocer of small amounts. The swindle was not discovered until yesterday, when a member of the army was questioned as to the progress of the new building. He exposed the swindler, who cannot be found. The trick was recently played in Grass Valley and Sacramento.

A Workingman's Plea.

EDITOR GAZETTE.—I would like to ask the voters, especially the working classes, why are you going to vote against the bonds? Do you wish to make the times still harder; to hear your little ones cry for food; to take your blankets and tramp through the country in search of work the way I did last fall, and the way scores of others did?

You merchants and shopkeepers, do you want to be able to collect your little bills and do business on a cash plan? You property owners, do you wish to keep your houses rented and not vacant with the eye weary card of "To Let," posted on the window, you had better vote for the bonds and prosperity, even though you do have to pay two or three dollars extra tax each year.

You doctors and lawyers, and lastly you newspaper folks, if you wish any patronage from the people, and if you wish to collect your bills, you had better give the working man a chance by working and voting for the bonds tomorrow.

JOHN ROBERTS.

Another reduction in Coos Bay coal. Now delivered at $7 per ton.
69

It will only average 12½¢ per $100 per year.

If you consume 2½ tons of necessities per year you save the extra tax.

The ladies sigh for them, all cry for them—bonds.

Vote for the bonds and you vote for prosperity.

BASE TREACHERY.

THE CIVIC CIRCULAR PRINTED IN THE ADVOCATE OFFICE

During the Dark Hours of Night and Taken to Golden Gate and Delivered.

Base Treachery.

When the circular signed "The Civic Federation," made its appearance upon the streets yesterday morning, many at once formed an idea as to who its authors were, but they did not think that it was avowed friends of the town and all its interests. They did not think that the people were being stabbed in the back by a newspaper that posed as their friend, yet such was a fact, and the matter is now known to a great many people, and will be known to hundreds of others after these lines have been read this evening.

The circular was got up and printed in the Advocate office, and all arrangements for distribution arranged by Mrs. Adelade Marquand, the editress of that sheet.

The GAZETTE stated last evening that the "Civic Federation" circulars were distributed through the Chronicle and Examiner, and this statement has brought out the fact that on Wednesday last Mrs. Marquand met the agents for the city papers and arranged with them to fold some bond circulars in the papers that they would distribute Thursday morning in Berkeley. She said that she would have to work on them all of Wednesday night, but would deliver them at an early hour on Thursday morning.

The agents have to go to Oakland for their papers, leaving Berkeley at 3 o'clock in the morning. They commenced their distribution at Golden Gate, so that the circulars had to be delivered to them at that point. When they arrived at Golden Gate, they were met by Fred Marquand, the business manager of the Advocate, who delivered the Federation circulars to them and they without investigating the contents at once proceeded to fold them into their papers, not having any impression that they were against the bonds, as they thought Mrs. Marquand, her son and Mr. Schmidt were friendly to the bonds, and were working for them.

When daylight came the agent read one of the circulars and found out what it contained, and further distribution of the circulars were stopped.

"We distributed those circulars," said they, "under false misrepresentation and had we known what they contained, they would not have been placed in our papers under any consideration, for all of us are in favor of bonds."

The duplicity of the Advocate and its editress and owners has now been shown up. In the columns of the paper they have, in a half hearted way, advocated bonds, while all the time they have been conniving and working against bonds.

Sympathy has caused certain good citizens of Berkeley to put their hands in their pockets and keep this tottering journalistic craft from sinking for some time. The fact that the Advocate has been paid $80 per month for four months by these people to see whether it could not get a new lease of life. The Civic Federation circular shows how this sympathy has been abused, and that the Advocate and its owners and managers are traitors to the best interests of Berkeley.

It Is Said.

That George Schmidt wants to help everybody. He took off his coat and helped to mail circulars in favor of the wharf and then put in his best licks to circulate the Civic Federation documents.

That the Cathode light develops things heretofore thought to be impossibilities. Example—Midnight silurians blackening the name of Berkeley's Board of Trustees.

That Berkeley expects every voter to do his duty tomorrow, and that duty is to vote for the bonds.

That even the sun has dark spots. How then could Berkeley expect to be without them. The new light shows them all marked Civic Federation.

That Our Savior had but one Judas. Berkeley has several of them.

That Vultures live on carrion. Berkeley has more birds of this kind than any town has a necessity for. They will have to be killed. Shoot them so that they will fall in the Pacific Ocean.

That the Civic Federation circulars are like a bumerang. It is on its way back now, and will strike the throwers tomorrow.

That more than one has changed his mind and will vote for all the bonds since he has seen and learned the animus of the Civic Federation circular.

That the GAZETTE shoots with a poisoned arrow, and the wounded man never recovers. He dies saying "Had I known, it would never have been."

That in the bond election citizens of Berkeley have found out who some of their hidden enemies are. Danger is near them and they try to hide themselves as did the ostrich in the desert by sticking their heads in the sand, and leaving their ungainly bodies stick out.

"If you don't run that circular through the Call" says an irate compound citizen. "I will stop taking it. The Call will still continue to appear in public every morning notwithstanding the threat."

"Many people have heard of the 'Rocky road to Dublin.' Should they desire to know what it is, let them take a trip over the Berkeley horse car line and get a good illustration."

The Oakland Paving Company is pushing the macadamizing work on Shattuck avenue. It cannot be done too quickly to suit the people who live in that section of the town as well as a large amount of travelers between Oakland and Berkeley.

Rod Cameron was taken quite ill day before yesterday with an attack of cholera morbus and had to have the attendance of a physician. Today he is out of doors but feels quite weak.

Ramos & Renas desire to inform the public of Berkeley that they have on hand a big supply of cow hay, horse hay, grain etc. They are selling cow hay at $9 a ton and fine wheat hay at $10 a ton. Don't go to Oakland when you can buy cheaper at home. Oak, Pine and Redwood any length, kindling, wood, etc. Chicken feed at the lowest price. Give them a trial and you will be convinced. 514

Changes Under Hays.

Superintendent Hays of the Home for Adult Blind, near Temescal, has made some radical changes in the conduct of the institution.

"When I took charge," he said yesterday, "I found that some of the rules and regulations of the institution were such as one might find in a prison. One of the women inmates told me that she was not allowed to see her brother oftener than once in two weeks. I have settled that sort of thing, and have also abolished the rule that prohibited men and women from conversing in the front grounds without permission. The parlors have been opened to the use of the unfortunates every night until 10 o'clock. I believe the people at the home are entitled to all the freedom compatible with proper discipline. They are not prisoners, and should not be so treated."

The law does not contemplate that sort of thing. They are entitled to all the privileges one may enjoy without in violation of the laws that govern society."

Of the ninety-five inmates in the home thirty-three are from San Francisco.

One of the basest crimes known is ingratitude. Today some of our best citizens know that while they have been feeding an alleged newspaper they have been harboring a viper.

Gold continues to arrive from England. The Steamer Aller brought $1,000,000, and the Havel which left Southampton yesterday, will bring the same amount.

The school children enjoyed themselves very much today in sending and receiving valentines. Some of the older people have also been keeping an anxious eye upon the postoffice today.

The electric power generated by the dynamo for the use of students in the mechanics building of the University was turned on Tuesday, and was found to work very satisfactorily. Power will also be supplied to the mining and civil engineering departments.

The baseball management of the University has secured from the Board of Regents permission to put three of the University police force with teams, at work on the campus baseball diamond and the field will soon be in good condition for the national game.

The Wettstein damage suit against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, which has been dragging its length along in Judge Ogden's Court, for the past fifteen days, is ended, and a verdict has been brought in against the Railroad Company. A year or so from now we will hear something more about it from the Supreme Court.

The GAZETTE has worked for bonds for both school and wharf ever since the matter was first broached, and it has done so for the benefit of the community and has never asked a dollar for it. It has not at the last moment for a few paltry dollars turned around and betrayed its friends and the people as it is rumored that another alleged newspaper has.

AWFUL STRUGGLE.

THREE BURGLARS ENTER A RESI- DENCE

And One Of Them Has His Brains
Blown Out by the Butler.

Special dispatches to the GAZETTE.

A Fearful Tragedy.

San Francisco, Feb. 14.—The residence of J. L. Franklin of the firm of Metzler & Franklin, at 2930 California street, was the scene of a thrilling affray about 4:45 o'clock this morning, in which John A. Anderson, a burglar, was shot and instantly killed by Frank J. Miller, the butler in Mr. Franklin's employ. Miller did not escape scathless from the encounter, for while the body of the burglar now rests on a slab in the Morgue, Miller is tossing on his couch, suffering from the effects of a bullet wound in the neck and an injury in his left hand.

There were three men engaged in the attempted burglary. They gained entrance into the house through the kitchen in the basement. Anderson was left below to keep watch while the others went upstairs in search of booty. Miller, the butler, sleeps in a small room off the setting room in the basement, some twenty steps from the door leading into the kitchen.

He heard the noise made by Anderson in emptying a valise which had been left in the kitchen by the cook, and picking up his pistol, he began a quiet investigation. Mrs. Miller's condition this morning was such as to prevent him from making a statement of the affair, it is certain that he came in contact with the burglar who stood in the passageway leading from the kitchen into an open space from which the stairway leading to the first floor begins.

They then began to shoot, each man firing four times. The last shot in all probabilities fired by Miller was the one that killed Anderson. They had struggled together in their fight for life or death until they staggered into the kitchen. Miller then raised his pistol to Anderson's right temple, an inch from the eye and fired. Miller then fell senseless, and when found by Officer Green ten minutes later, the body of the dead man was lying upon him. Their blood mingled and formed a ghastly pool upon the floor.

A Bandmaster's Death.

Pasadena, Feb. 14.—Allen Dodworth the well known musician who conducted the famous Dodworth Band of New York city for forty years, died here last night of pneumonia. He was 78 years of age and had resided in Pasadena for six years. He leaves two sons, Allen Dodworth of this city, and Frank Dodworth of Brooklyn.

New York, Feb. 14.—The Morgan Line steamer El Dorado, Captain Byrne which cleared from this port yesterday for New Orleans, is ashore off Liberty street.

Campos Declines.

New York, Feb. 13.—A special to the Herald from Havana says: Madrid dispatches received here say that Martinez Campos, since the recent demonstrations at the Spanish capital, has declined to assume the Presidency of the Supreme Council of War, to which he has been appointed, and has signified his purpose of leaving the country. He desires, he says, to accompany an invalid son who goes to Germany to recuperate his health.

VOTE EARLY AND RIGHT.

Long before old Sol rears his head over Grizzly Peak tomorrow morning the polls will be opened in the different wards of the town ready to receive the votes of the citizens of Berkeley. And those votes are to decide whether the best is to go ahead and be one of the most prosperous towns in the State, or whether it is to be a town where live business men and wealthy homesteaders who desire to educate their children will stay away from. We have confidence enough in the people to believe that when the votes are counted tomorrow night they will show that the citizens of Berkeley have declared themselves in favor of bonds and progress.

It demands no sacrifice upon the part of our people to vote in favor of bonds, as the increase in taxation is so small that it will never be felt while the increase in value to property and the increase in business and population will compensate the outlay an hundred fold.

Your own children will tell you that the schools which it is proposed to build if the bonds are carried, are even now a necessity, which, being the case, it is our bondsmen's duty to supply them.

In the matter of a wharf that has been a necessity for several years, and if it is built now numerous manufacturing firms will be established in West Berkeley. Even now there are no less than six large manufacturers whose plants represent over a million dollars, and who will give employment to more than 300 employees who are waiting to see whether you want them to come among you. If you do, vote for bonds and you will have them, and as any truth in the statement was concerned, I as people of Berkeley were not born yesterday and they can easily see through the circular and they will not be deceived by an overwhelming vote for bonds.

Can you allow such an opportunity to slip from your grasp? We think not, and we do not believe that as thinking men you will.

Heretofore there has been some feeling between the different sections of the town, but we are proud to say that the expressions of good will and unanimity that have been made during the past month, show that all sectional feeling has now passed away and that our people are now united in their efforts to build up and make one grand Berkeley that knows no south, no north, no east and no west. Let everybody go to the polls tomorrow and when he gets into the booth, put his cross in the yes column for both school and wharf bonds.

The eyes of the whole State are now upon Berkeley and they are waiting with breathless anxiety to hear the news ticked over the wires that Berkeley has taken her place among the progressive cities of the State and has carried the $400,000 bonds unanimously.

When that news is received east and west capitalists and homesteaders will set their course for Berkeley. The news papers of the State will point out Berkeley as a town to emulate and those who cannot come here themselves will send their children here to be educated for by your vote tomorrow you will decide whether Berkeley is to be set of learning for this Pacific Coast.

Remember that vote for bonds is a vote for progress and a vote for the future of Berkeley.

Every well thinking man will vote for the bonds next Saturday.

The scurrilous attack made upon the Board of Trustees and President Richards in the Civic Federation circular yesterday was entirely uncalled for and was a reflection upon a body of the best citizens of Berkeley. Men who are above the petty politics practiced by such parties as those who got up the circulars, but are men who have accepted their present positions for the best interests of Berkeley, even to the neglect of their own business.

If you are true, the 16th will come true, the 16th will come true.

It would be well for the members of the Good Government Club and the West Berkeley Progressive Club to investigate and find out the authors of the Civic Federation circular and also where it was printed. We think that if they do investigate they will find that for a few paltry dollars they are being slaughtered in the home of their pretended friends, whom they have kept in existence in the past four months.

You can't build up a town by keeping a barbed fence around it.

EXTRUS N. T. Whiting telephone 11. The GAZETTE this morning that his name had been used as one of the authors of the Civic Federation circular, and that he objects to the name being used in that connection, as he had nothing whatever to do with it, and all that he knew about it was that he had been approached by a man and asked to contribute $50 toward the expenses which he refused, and that the party told him that a former Town Attorney was the man who was getting up the circular.

Berkeley--From the hills to the bay.

The nondescript circular issued yesterday against bonds has only excited contempt for its author or authors. From the very first line its insincerity can be observed. It starts in to assume that the call is made for $200,000 for school bonds, and then goes on to make its figures correspond to that amount, while it figures out the amount of principal and interest to be raised never giving any credit for the amount which will be paid off each year for any increases in the valuation of the property for the next 40 years. It might just as well have made the amount $500,000 as $200,000 as far as any truth in the statement was concerned. I as people of Berkeley were not born yesterday and they can easily see through the circular and they will not be deceived by an overwhelming vote for bonds.
